Have you seen this before?

It's a Japanese toy called a kendama.

I'll show you how to play with it.

You catch the ball in one of the cups, or on the pin, like this.

I think playing with a kendama is more difficult than playing with a yo-yo.

What do you think?

A kendama, like a yo-yo, is a toy enjoyed by both children and adults.

Once you start playing with it, you can't stop.
